

The Hindu Vocabulary: 13.08.2023

1. RIFT (NOUN): division

Synonyms: gap, difference

Antonyms: bridge, joint

Example sentence:

The opposition and the government seemed to be focussed on removing the rift between them.

2. FORTHCOMING (ADJECTIVE): coming in future

Synonyms: New, Futuristic

Antonyms: Obsolete, Outdated

Example sentence:

Ever since I was of tender age, I have trained for forthcoming technical enhancements.

3. BORROW (VERB): to take by request

Synonyms: Loan, Beg

Antonyms: Snatch, Rob

Example sentence:

The new economic freedom has enabled people to borrow less and spend more.

4. CRISIS (NOUN): problem

Synonyms: Mayhem, Doom

Antonyms: Prosperity, Harmony

Example sentence:

The writer's crisis lies in the depiction of negative characters in a positive way and vice versa.

5. JUMBLE (VERB): disturbing

Synonyms: disorder, disorganise

Antonyms: Organise, Arrange

Example sentence:

All of us can jumble up our lives, but many few of us can arrange it properly.

6. PROLIFEROUS (ADJECTIVE): fertile

Synonyms: bountiful, arable Antonyms: barren, arid

Example Sentence:

The government has given permission to build infrastructure on a prolific piece of land.

7. APPRECEPTIVE (ADJECTIVE): alert

Synonyms: watchful, cognizant Antonyms: heedless, indiscreet

Example Sentence:

His appreceptive quality has kept him out of trouble so far.

8. FUMY (ADJECTIVE): cloudy

Synonyms: blurry, murky Antonyms: luminous, distinct

Example Sentence:

The view was extremely fummy and we couldn't see anyone.

9. REBUFF (NOUN): ignore

Synonyms: rebuke, snub Antonyms: welcome, praise

Example Sentence:

The rebuff faced by me from the big companies was good for my business.

10. STICKLE (VERB): Disagree

Synonyms: disapprove, refute Antonyms: endorse, aid

Example Sentence:

The decision was stickled by the higher management.