A prospective employer has (P) not to appoint a candidate who may have a “higher qualification”, but not the one prescribed for the job vacancy, the Supreme Court has held. A Bench led by Justice Ashok Bhushan said courts have limited judicial review over such decisions by employers. Prescription of qualifications for a post is a matter of recruitment policy. Discretion lies with the employer.

“It is for the employer to determine and decide the relevancy and (Q) of the qualifications for any post, and it is not for the courts to consider and assess,” Justice M.R. Shah, who authored the verdict, pointed out. The apex court said courts allow a “greater latitude” for employers to prescribe the necessary qualification for a post.

QUESTION 12

“There is a (R) behind it. Qualifications are prescribed keeping in view the need and interest of an institution or an industry or an establishment as the case may be. The courts are not fit instruments to assess expediency or advisability or utility of such prescription of qualifications,” the apex court judgment explained. It, however, noted that an employer cannot act (S) or fancifully in prescribing qualifications for posts. The judgment came on an appeal filed by the Punjab National Bank against an Orissa High Court decision allowing an overqualified candidate to be appointed as a peon.

The Supreme Court set aside the High Court decision of November 22, 2019 upholding an overqualified candidate’s claim to a job as peon in the bank.

The Supreme Court set aside the High Court decision of November 22, 2019 upholding an overqualified candidate's claim to a job as peon in the bank. It noted that this candidate had deliberately not disclosed the fact that he was a graduate. It was known only later. Besides, the prescribed qualification for the job was Class XII pass. The Bank had a specific rule against appointing a graduate as peon.

"In the present case, prescribing the eligibility criteria/educational qualification that a graduate candidate shall not be eligible and the candidate must have passed 12th standard is justified. It was a (T) decision taken by the Bank in force since 2008. Therefore, the High Court has clearly erred," the Supreme Court observed.

Directions (Q16-20): Rearrange the following six sentences (A), (B), (C), (D) and (E) to make a meaningful paragraph and answer the questions that follow.

QUESTION 16-20

5:00

- A. We do need to guard against unfair trade practices, such as goods made in China being routed through some countries with which India has an FTA, flouting all rules of origin and local value-addition norms.
- B. This is integral to the ongoing process of eliminating from Indian business assorted means of enrichment that have little do with efficient creation of value.
- C. India can hope to end its present exclusion from global value chains — across various industry segments —through membership of RCEP.
- D. At the same time, the government needs to appreciate that global trade and exposure to import competition constitute a sure method of raising Indian industry's competitiveness.
- E. In parallel, there's the need to put in place clear-cut safeguards measures to prevent dumping of goods, especially from China.
