The MeghEA initiative is spread across 6 pillars i.e. Governance, Human Resources, Entrepreneurship, Primary Sector, Infrastructure and Environment, and envision to make Meghalaya a high income state by 2030. The project aims to improve service delivery and governance for the people using power of Digital technologies.

With the notification of India Enterprise Architecture (IndEA) in 2018, design and implementation of integrated, nationally portable and scalable digital platforms have gained a new momentum.

During the launch of the North East vision document in Aug 2018, Meghalaya was selected as the pilot first pilot State for preparation of Meghalaya Enterprise Architecture (MeghEA) and design and implementation of MeghEA integrated Finance Solution Architecture.

Meghalaya has come up with a framework to implement integrated digital service system in the governance process and dedicated this initiative to PM Narendra Modi.

Meghalaya Chief Minister Conrad K Sangma and Union Minister, Ministry of Information and Technology (MeitY)

Ashwini Vaishnaw jointly launched 'MeghEA- Meghalaya Enterprise Architecture'.

India's 'early harvest' trade deals could run into trouble

Prabhash Ranjan writes: They can be saved from a possible indictment at the WTO if they are designed and presented as "interim agreements" leading to the formation of a free trade agreement.

WTO agri agreement tilted against developing nations: Piyush Goyal

Goyal said that historical asymmetries and imbalances must be corrected to ensure a rule-based, fair and equitable order. Goyal said this while addressing the G-33 Virtual Informal Ministerial Meeting.
