New Quad

First virtual summit of the foreign ministers of the US, India, Israel and UAE was recently held. After the meeting, India, Israel, the United Arab Emirates and the United States have decided to launch a new quadrilateral economic forum.

What is it?

The quadrilateral builds on ongoing cooperation between the U.S., Israel and the UAE after the Abraham Accords (2020) and India.

The forum is described as an international forum for economic cooperation.

New Quad

Aim - The aim of the new quadrilateral grouping is to establish an international forum for economic cooperation. The grouping will specifically look for the “possibilities for joint infrastructure projects” in transportation and technology.

Focus areas - The new quadrilateral grouping will “expand the economic and political cooperation in the Middle East and Asia, including through trade, combating climate change, technology cooperation including Big Data, energy cooperation, and increasing maritime security.”

Future of the new Quad - Each country will appoint a senior professional to a joint working group. This joint working group will formulate options for cooperation in the focus areas identified by the new Quad.

Apart from that, the four ministers also decided to convene an inperson meeting in Dubai soon.

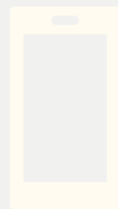

New Quad

Article in News

During the meeting, they also agreed that the key to the success of the new quad depends upon how quickly the forum can move from 'government-to-government' to 'business-to-business.

Significance -The four countries have a "unique set of capabilities, knowledge, and experience" that can be used to create a new network of cooperation.

Black Sea

US Defence Secretary has urged more defence cooperation among friendly Black Sea countries amid Russia “militarisation” of the region.

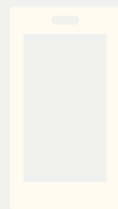

Location - located between Eastern Europe and Western Asia.

Surrounded by -the Pontic, Caucasus, and Crimean Mountains in the south, east and north respectively.

The Black Sea is also connected to the Sea of Azov by the Strait of Kerch. Black Sea
👉 About -The Turkish straits system - the Dardanelles, Bosphorus and Marmara Sea - forms a transitional zone between the Mediterranean and the Black Sea.

Bordering countries -Russia, Ukraine, Georgia, Turkey, Bulgaria and Romania.

There is a significant absence of oxygen in the water (anoxic waters).
