A noun denotes the name of a person or animal or a thing, at the same time it also denotes the gender of them.

E.g.-

The words 'man' and 'woman' are common nouns, which denotes the names of persons. At the same time these nouns also indicate their gender.

मिशन CTET / STET 2023

The noun 'man' indicates to a person who has some masculine qualities and so it belongs to masculine gender.

On the other hand, the noun 'woman' indicates to a person who has some feminine qualities, so, it belongs to feminine gender.

Up to this this point we have learnt two types of gender —

I. Masculine gender and

II. Feminine gender.

Apart from these two, there are tow more kinds —

III. Common gender and,

IV. Neuter gender.

I. Masculine Gender:

A noun which denotes a male sex.

Like – Man, boy, uncle, actor etc.

II. Feminine Gender:

A noun which denotes a female sex.

Like – Woman, girl, aunt, actress etc

III. Common Gender:

A noun which denotes a living thing but does not specify the sex.

Like – Teacher, student, child etc.

IV. Neuter Gender:

A noun which denotes a non-loving thing.

Like – Book, pen, chair, table etc.
