CLOZE TEST

PART 2

In the following question, a passage is given with six words given as bold and labeled as A,B,C,D,E and F. You have to choose the word from the given options which grammatically and contextually replaces the bold part.

The struck (A) historical characteristic of Korea is the homogeneity of its people and its continuous history, until recently, as a unified political entity. The same term, Han minjok, is used to convey (B) both the Korean race and the Korean nation. Riven by subnational loyalties, India is anything but normal (C). Yet India too has formed (D) unity since time immemorial, which is renewed daily in the hearts and minds of its citizens. South Korea's national identity and nationalism were forged, respectively, of (E) the collapse of Chinese universalism at the turn of the first millennium and, again, in the early 20th century. India was never part of the Chinese world order. Yet both nations were, in the evocative words of Rabindranath Tagore, "lamp bearers" in their modern histories, reduced (F) in the struggle against colonialism and determined to re-illuminate the East.
