Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow by choosing the correct/most appropriate options:

India's foreign policy mandarins are all set to go into overdrive in the wake of new challenges. The Shanghai Cooperation Organization (SCO) meeting (September 15-16) in Samarkand, Uzbekistan, was a test case for governments on how to deal with current conflicts and attempt new guidelines for the future. Along with Prime Minister Narendra Modi were Russian President Vladimir Putin, Chinese Premier Xi Jinping, Iranian President Ebrahim Raisi, Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan, and the leaders of Pakistan and other SCO nations. The special significance of this in-person SCO meeting lay in the fact that it was taking place when the world stood at a crossroads, in the wake of the Russia-Ukrainian _____.

Mr. Xi's initial remarks to Mr. Putin on the sidelines of the conference signaled the divided nature of the world today. Even as the leaders emphasized the strengthening of their ties in defiance of the West, Mr. Xi's remarks that 'China is willing to make efforts with Russia to assume the role of great powers, and play a guiding role to inject stability and positive energy into a world rocked by social turmoil’ were pregnant with many meanings. Mr. Putin’s response further underlined the extent of global disruption taking place today and the wide chasm that separated the two warring blocs. India’s presence at the meeting of the Council of Heads of State of the SCO was significant, reflecting a desire to be a part of both blocs, without antagonizing either. The justification provided is that it represented a ‘new version’ of Non-alignment, viz., steering an independent course, despite the open association with rival blocs. At the meeting, Mr. Modi made certain significant observations that mirror India’s new version of Non-alignment. For instance, after refusing to take sides in the Ukrainian conflict for months, Mr. Modi told Mr. Putin that “this isn’t the era of war”, stressing instead that “it was one of democracy, dialogue and diplomacy”. This has been interpreted as a mild rebuke of Russia’s invasion of Ukraine. On the other hand, in his formal opening remarks at the summit, Mr. Modi thanked both Russia and Ukraine for the evacuation of Indian students from Ukraine, highlighting India’s posture of equidistance between the two countries.
