2. Interrogative sentences :

d. If the Reported speech contains questions beginning with “wh” i.e. who, what , why, whom etc. A conjunction is not used before the reported speech.

- He said to me, “Where do you live?” (Direct)
- He asked me where I lived. (Correct)

e. The reported speech should be made assertive i.e. ‘verb + subject’ is converted into ‘subject + verb’.

- He said to me, “what will you eat today?”
- He asked me what I should eat that day.

2. Interrogative sentences:

f. Question mark should be removed and full stop is added.

3. In case of 'or not' Consider the following examples:

- He said to me, "are you coming or not ?"
- He asked me whether I was going or not.
- He said to me, "what do you want?"
- He asked me what I wanted.

CHANGING INTO INDIRECT SPEECH:

3. Imperative sentences:

A. Sentences that contain order, request, advice, negative command etc.

B. These sentences start with the main verb e.g. Go,do,Bring, pick, make etc. are changed into 'ordered'.

'Please/kindly' are changed into 'requested'.

C. Sentences containing negative command start with 'Do not'

or 'Don't'.

Rules:

- 'Say / said' should be changed into ordered, requested, advised, ask, asked, beg, begged, tell, told etc.
- D. Inverted comma should be removed and 'to' is added according to need.
- E. The pronouns contained in the reported speech should be changed according to the need.
- F. Words such as kindly, Please etc. need to be removed.

Precautions regarding negative command:

a. Inverted commas are removed and 'not to + V1' is added.

Precautions regarding negative command.

- I said to him, “do not waste water.” (direct)
- I advised him not to waste water. (indirect)

NOTE: But when the sentence contains 'forbid' :

Consider the following example:

- Ravi said to me, 'Don't ' make a noise. (direct)
- Ravi forbade me to make a noise. (indirect)

NOTE: When prohibit, prohibited, prevent etc. are present:

- The structure Prohibit / Prevent + Object + From + V1st form+(ing) are use
- Mohan said to his brother, "Do not go out in the dark."
- Mohan prohibited his brother from going out in the dark.
