

SBI CLERK 2023

रफ्तार Batch

- Error Detection ENGLISH / Day-1
- Vocabulary English by Shalini Shan
- Sentence Improvement
- Word Swap/ Word Usages

हल करो सब कुछ चुटकियों में

LIVE

02:00 PM

The given sentences have been divided into five parts of which one might be erroneous. You must read the same carefully and choose the same as your answer.

1. She also used the dais — raised platform

2. to launch an attack against a vowel sound

3. the opposition parties in the

4. state without directly naming them.

5. No error

1. Oxford dictionary defines
2. moonlighting as 'having a
3. second job, typically secretly
4. and at night, in addition to
5. one's regular employment.

's Possessive

One's

Possession

1. The colleges will be set up

2. under the centrally sponsored

3. scheme for the "establishment

4. of new medical colleges ~~with~~

by preposition

5. upgrading district or referral hospitals."

1. ^{Singular} Biodiversity is the only way
2. of life and when it needs to be
3. ^{be + V3} implemented, there will be challenges,
4. especially in the urban areas.
5. No error

Plants and varieties
 Sub. Plural
 ↓
 Verb (Plural)

1. The rare plants and
2. varieties has crossed 1,000 have
3. mark and there are six to
4. seven lakh trees and (Plural)
5. plants in the campus.

In the given questions, sentences have been given in which a word has been highlighted. You must read the given sentences carefully and choose the one in which the usage of the highlighted word is incorrect.

Word Usage

Complacent

feel too satisfied
with one's situation

(need not to worry)

1. ✓ The strong economy has made people complacent.
2. ✓ The student grew complacent about the challenges ahead.
3. ✓ He cursed himself inwardly for having been so complacent for so long. ✗
4. ✓ They grew complacent about the threat from global terrorism.
5. ✓ Wal-Mart is not complacent about its position in fashion.

Paranoid

Unrealistic
distrust

1. ✓ She's a little paranoid about her job.

2. ✓ The players seem more relaxed and paranoid this season. ^{Confident} X

3. ✓ She's getting paranoid about what other people think of her.

4. ✓ I get a little paranoid around big dogs.

5. All correct

Naive

without any experience

1. When she was young and naive, she had dreamed of such a job.

2. Oh, so you are still naive enough to hope he'll stick around.

3. You're inexperienced, innocent — even naive, but you're not immature.

4. Her rosy view of life abroad seems rather naive.

5. All correct

The following questions have a phrase or a part of the sentence that has been highlighted. It might need an improvement to be grammatically correct. Choose the correct phrase as your answer.

Sentence Improvement

opening up

bring in new ideas

Gadgets today are moving beyond the talk-chart sms-email routine and opening out new works and play opportunities for the Indians.

1. opening for new work
2. opening up new work
3. opening a new work
4. opening a few work
5. No correction required

Even text books have gone the e-way, fitted with features that keep an eye to deadlines and map a child's learning pattern.

Keep a careful observation of something

Keep an eye on

- 1. keeps an eye to
- 2. keep an eye of
- 3. keep an eye on
- 4. keep an eye for
- 5. No correction required

Correct phrase

The senior most Cabinet ministers have been occupying with their personal agenda, rather than collective responsibility or national policy.

busy with something Occupying

V3

1. have been being occupied with
2. have to be occupying with
3. had been occupied by
4. have been occupied with
5. No correction required

The railways have become synonymous with neglect.

Synonymous to Synonymous with correct

1. The railways have become synonymous for
2. The railways has become synonymous towards
3. The railway have become synonymous of
4. The railways is being synonym of
5. No correction required

After all, her father is a friend of me.

mine Poss. pronoun

Preposition

Objective case

- 1. a friend of I
- 2. a friend of myself
- ✓ 3. a friend of mine
- 4. a friend of my
- 5. No correction required

The following sentences carry words that have been highlighted in the sentence. These words might not be in their correct positions. Choose the option that provides the correct sequence of the words in the sentences.

Word/Swap

India is (A) projected to (B) country China as the world's (C) most populous (D) surpass in 2023.

ADCB

- 1. ADCB
- 2. BDCA
- 3. ADBC
- 4. CDBA
- 5. ABCD

Country

We ^{have} (A) ^{deployed} also (B) ^{trace} a dog squad and (C) drone cameras to (D) ^{have} him.

DACB

- 1. ABDC
- 2. BCAD
- 3. DACB
- 4. CDBA
- 5. ABCD

Israeli archaeologists have found an ancient comb (A) dating back some 3,700 years ago and (B) bearing what is likely the (C) oldest known full sentence written in the (D) earliest alphabet.

1. DCBA

2. ABCD

3. BCDA

4. ADBC

5. CDBA

Banksy has (A) damaged a picture of his (B) artwork on the side of a (C) shared building in Ukraine (D) amid war.

Shared (circled) damaged (circled)
amid war (circled)

1. ABDC
2. CBAD
3. CDBA
4. BDAC
5. ACBD

10am → Mission Bank

1pm Editorial

2pm Raftaar

THANK

YOU