Police get bomb threat at Jama Masjid, call turns out to be hoax

Press Trust of India

NEW DELHI

A 14-year-old boy allegedly made a hoax call about a bomb placed at the Jama Masjid, the police said on Saturday.

According to a senior officer, a PCR call was received at the Jama Masjid police station around 7.50 a.m. Friday about the bomb at the mosque.

A police team, along with a bomb squad, reached the spot and carried out searches, he said.

"Later, the call was found to be made by a 15-year-old boy studying in a local madrasa. Further inquiry revealed the involvement of another boy, also studying in the madrasa. They had planned the call to take leave from the madrasa," the officer added.

A day earlier, a 21-year-old man was arrested from north Delhi's Bhalswa Dairy for a hoax alert on social media about an autorickshaw carrying arms to the G-20 Summit.
