To express a habitual action , routine action or irregular actions .

- You study English everyday at 7:30
- We go for walk daily .

To express general truths

1. The earth is round.
2. Slow and steady wins the race.

To indicate a future event that is part of a plan or arrangement.

For example,

1. We leave for Delhi next Wednesday.
2. PM leaves for china next week .

To indicate a future event that is part of a plan or arrangement.

For example,

1. We leave for Delhi next Wednesday.
2. PM leaves for china next week .

If since is used at the beginning of a sentence , the formation of the sentence will be as follows :-

Eg :- since he joined the army , he has not taken any leave .

simple past

present perfect

To show a past action or when point of time of past is given .

1) I have come yesterday

2) The boy had left school an hour ago.

- When Anand reached his village ,he found that the news about him had preceded him .
- the patient had reached the hospital after the doctor left the cabin .
- The patient died before the doctor reached .

When two actions happened in the past and it may be necessary to show which action happened earlier than the other. We use Past Perfect in the event that happened earlier and second is expressed in simple past .

To show an action in which “ by the time” is used first action is in simple present another in future perfect

❖ By the time I reached the station , the train will have left .

❖ You will have finished your syllabus by the end of next month
